involve engaging with one other through movement, sound, and acting. The emphasis is on becoming present, relaxing and having fun while being creative, playful, and connected.

GIANTS BALLGAME

A group of residents, who are also sports enthusiasts, will no doubt enjoy the Jewish Community Federation Senior Excursion Fund's-sponsored outing on Friday, August 14 to watch the Giants play at AT&T Park.

COUNCIL OF RESIDENTS MEETINGS

The regular meeting of the Council of Residents will be held on Wednesday, August 12, 2:30 p.m. in F1's teal atrium. The Council meeting for Russian-language residents is scheduled for Tuesday, August 11, 2:30 p.m. on G5. Open Food Forums precede both meetings, starting at 2:00 p.m.

BIRTHDAY LUNCHEON

Residents celebrating their birthday this month will be honored on Thursday, August 20 with a luncheon at noon in the Frank Family Lounge.

SUMMER ARTS FESTIVAL

Our Summer Arts Festival continues, brimming with a variety of interesting activities ranging from lectures-discussions, to music, arts, dances and more.

Sunday, August 2 features Ken Vermes on the flute and sax, and Si Perkoff on the piano. Gather at 2:00 p.m. in the rose atrium on F1 for great Classics of the American Songbook offerings.

Come to the Goodman lobby on Tuesday, August 4 from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. for the sale of resident paintings and ceramics. All works of art are offered at very reasonable prices.

Our own Rabbi Shelly Marder presents Expressions of Spirituality in Modern Israeli Art on Wednesday, August 5, 10:00 a.m. in the Frank Family Lounge.

The creations of residents who have been doing beading and jewelry-making will be displayed along the Galleria leading to the Friedman Pavilion on Thursday, August 6. Necklaces, bracelets, earrings and other accessories will be laid out in the glass cases. A reception in the Goodman lobby for the resident artists follows. The following Thursday, August 13, there is a jewelry-making workshop at 1:30 p.m. in the lobby of Goodman. Design and create your own accessories in your favorite style and with your chosen colors.

Rita Rossina presents Shoe Fashion Through the Years, a special program highlighting various shoe designs for Russian-language residents on Thursday, August 6, 2:30 p.m. on G5.

Come listen to the Eastman Clarinet Duo play light classical and klezmer music on Sunday, August 9, 2:00 p.m. in F1's rose atrium.

Violinist Alexei Kodash takes up his bow on Wednesday, August 19, 2:00 p.m. in the Frank Family Lounge to play klezmer music for a Russian dancer.

Don't miss an exquisite and unique performance that tells the story of the convergence of the deaf and hearing worlds. It stars Amnon Damti, deaf from birth and considered one of the world's leading deaf dancers, and his wife, Jill, a gifted choreographer. The curtain rises in the Frank Family Lounge at 2:00 p.m. on Tuesday, August 25.

Mark Levy returns on Thursday, August 27, 10:30 a.m. in the Frank Family Lounge for Fiddlers on the Stage – a presentation featuring Heifetz, Stern, Menuhin, Millstein, Oistrakh, and Perlman. They are just a sample of Jewish violinists of the 20th century who enchanted the concert stages of the world. Their playing defined the genre and still moves us, from their early recordings to their live performances captured on film.

Sunday, August 30th's afternoon entertainment is a concert by violinist Yakov Stanislavskiy. It begins at 2:00 in the F1 rose atrium.

THEATER ARTS & IMPROVISATION

Are you interested in theater arts and improvisation? Then join other residents who have attended Judy Goodman's six-week workshop. The program is run through San Francisco City College, and resumes on Thursdays, starting August 20, 9:45 a.m. on G5 for Russian-language residents, and at 10:30 a.m. in the cultural center for the English-speaking contingent. Both sessions will be under Maya Scott.

The workshop presents theater exercises that
